

Words Count and Imagination Library in North Lincolnshire

Poetry and Art Workshops

20 September 2017 at the Learning Development Centre

Featuring

- Poet Ian McMillan
- Cartoonist Tony Husband
- Musician Luke Carver Goss

20 September
10.00am-11.30am

20 September
1.30pm-3.00pm

£10 per pupil*

Words Count are on the lookout for pairs of creative KS2 pupils (one with a passion for writing and the other with a talent for art) who can collaborate to create an illustrated poem for a North Lincolnshire Poetry Anthology. The collection, titled 'Pride of Place', will celebrate the colourful characters and inspiring landscapes of our wonderful community.

At this fun, interactive workshop, the pupils will have the unique opportunity to work alongside three award-winning media personalities, with years of experience in radio, TV, theatre and journalism.

*Please note pupils only need to attend one of the sessions. Maximum four pupils per school (two writers, two artists). Pupils must be accompanied by one or more staff members. Please contact Alice.Broadhurst@northlincs.gov.uk to secure places.

Ian McMillan

The poet, playwright, broadcaster and 'bard of Barnsley' needs little introduction to audiences in North Lincolnshire. The former poet-in-residence with Humberside Police also wrote the words to the acclaimed opera 'Cycle Song', a celebration of Scunthorpe steelworker turned Olympic cyclist Albert 'Lal' White. In 2017 he provided an original poem 'Open the Book', to support the North Lincolnshire Children's Literacy Trust.

Tony Husband

Tony has been a full time cartoonist for over 30 years. Yobs, which he draws for Private Eye, is one of the best known comic strips in Britain and his work has also appeared in The Times and The Sunday Express. He received the Pont Award for depicting the British way of life. He tours the UK regularly with Ian with their show 'A Cartoon History of Here'.

Luke Carver Goss

Luke is an accordionist, composer, and music educator. His work includes commissions for symphony orchestras, rock bands, musicals, theatres, and dance ensembles. He has toured with folk bands across Britain and his group Carver Trio have been featured on the Radio 3 Late Night Junction Programme. He regularly collaborates with Ian.
